MAGNATES AND PEOPLE OF SOUTH

President Harrihan Willing to Dissipate Misunderstanding.

GUEST IN RICHMOND.

Large Gathering of Officials of the State and City's Business Men at Dinner.

Richmond, Dec. 6.—The recent announcement of Fairfax Harrison, the newly-electel President of the Southern Railway Company, that he would continue the policy of his predecessor, W. W. Finley, in the intercsts of the southern country, has been followed by a similar announcement from the new head of the Seaboard Air Line.

W. J. Harahan, who now fills that position, was the guest of honor at luncheon given at teh Commonwealth club yesterday by William H. White, president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad.

The entertainment, while entirely informal, was one of the most agreeable occasions of the kind in the recent history of Richmond. There was a congenial company of perhaps, one hundred of the leading officials, public men, business and professional men of the city assembled as Mr. White's guests. The dining room was made attractive and fragrant with roses and other flowers the luncheon was an excellent one, well served and Mr. White and his associate officers were untiring in their attentions to the guests.

Mr. Harahan is one of the best known of the young railroad men of the country. He is a native of Tennessee and is deeply interested in the progress and development of the South.

The company invited to meet Mr. Harahan was representative of the official, business and professional life of Richmond. Governor Mann, Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson, Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams, Judge Rives, of the Corporation Commission, President Keith, of the Supreme Court of Appeals, were among the higher State officials present. while out-of-town visitors included Mr. Lamb, receiver for the A. B. & A. road, and Judge Legh R. Watts, of Norfolk, general counsel for the Seaboard.

The luncheon was entirely informal. Mr. White, when the meal was over, stated that it was distinctly understood that there would be no speech-making, except an address by Mr. Harahan, and he was satisfied that this gentleman would be very brief.

Mr. Harahan spoke briefly and showed himself very sympathetic with the South.

Among other things he said:

"The Seaboard Air Line Railway, like most of the other important railroads of the country, represents a development which the progress of the South has made possible. It operates over three thousand miles of railroads through the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Alabama, and as evidence of the fact that it is a railroad of the people and for the people, it is only necessary for me to tell you that practically every State it serves is represented on its board of directors.

WRECK ON SOUTHERN.

One Dead, Three Injured, and Seven Cars Demolished.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 6.—One is dead, one dangerously injured, two slightly hurt and seven freight cars were demolished as the result of a freight wreck yesterday morning near Selma siding, on the Southern Railway.

A broken rail was the cause of the wreck. John Rhodes, the fireman, was scalded to death, and Conductor John Cates, of Raleigh, badly bruised.

The 1914 reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, will be held in [illegible], Fla., April 27 to May 1.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The British cabinet by royal proclamation last night prohibiting importation of arms and ammunition into Ireland, for the first time grasped the nettle of the revolution in Ulster, which it had hitherto ignored, although followers of Sir Edward Carson for months have been advertising their military preparations in every possible way and daring interference.

A Catholic priest was shot yesterday by a socialist in Brussels, Belgium, because he refused to join a funeral procession in which the red flag of socialism was carried. One of the men in the funeral party, on his return from the cemetery, forced his way into the Presbytery, shot the priest and wounded one of the servants.

The Rev. James A. Graham, aged 67, who had been serving a life term under the habitual criminal act, was released Thursday from the penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va., having been pardoned by Gov. Geo. H. D. Hatfield. Graham, an intinerant minister, had served three terms for horse stealing and on his fourth conviction was sentenced to a life term.

The Pensacola, Fla., state bank was ordered closed yesterday by a representative from the State Comptroller's office. The bank is capitalized at $100,000 and has deposits aggregating nearly $400,000, of which about $125,000 belonged to Pensacola. President F. E. Brawner declared all depositors would be paid in full.

President Wilson's illness has developed into a slght attack of grippe. He was forced to remain in the White House again yesterday, but his cold showed considerable improvement. Dr. Grayson, the president's physician, said there was no cause for concern over the President's condition; that they were taking every precaution to break the cold up at the start.

Lieut. Col. David DuBose Gaillard, N.S.A. died yesterday in Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, a martyr to his labors on the Panama Canal. Col. aGillard, who directed the engineering work in the Culebra Cut division of the canal, had been a patient at the hospital since August 17, last.

The bodies of three Japanese sailors who jumped into the Schuylkill river at Philadelphia yesterday in an attempt to escape from the steamship Teikoku, Maru were recovered yesterday. The three men who were drowned attempted to reach shore Thursday night on a raft constructed from the cover of a hatchway.

A man identified as M. F. Rober, of Gettysburg, Pa., cut the throat of Anna Hensinger, of Lewisburg, and killed himself during a quarrel in a cab at an early hour yesterday morning. The pair had been together early in the night, and started for the Woman's Home about midnight in a cab. When they arrived at the number given, Charles Harbold, the driver, opened the door and the woman's body toppled out Harbold then shook the man whom he found to be dead, with his throat gashed in several places. A bloody penknife was found on the floor.

President Wilson has approved the plan of Secretary Bryan to "observe" the forthcoming Dominican elections. This approval was evidenced yesterday in the issuance of orders to the gunboat Dolphin to proceed to Santo Domingo and join the gun boats Nashville and Petrel in those waters. It is believed that the placing a few observers in the Dominican provinces will not affect any thing like a supervision of the election by the United States. It is hoped, however, that the general knowledge that the United States has representatives in some of the more important districts will have a good moral effect and prove conducive to a better atmosphere than usually surrounds an election in a Latinu-American republic.

Struck by an automobile at the intersection of Connecticut and Rhode Island avenues, Washington, last night, shortly before 8:30 o'clock, John Francis Moran, 13-year-old son of Mrs. Mary E. Moran, received injuries from which he died while in an ambulance on the way to the Emergency Hospital.

INVESTIGATING DEBT QUESTION

West Virginia Accountants In Richmond Examining Books.

TURNED OVER TO THEM

Sister State Officials Examine Records Back to Year of Creation of Commonwealth.

Richmond, Dec. 6.—In an effort to dig up new evidence in connection with the Virginia-West Virginia long-standing debt question, State Accountant Dover, of West Virginia, with two assistants, yesterday began probing books in the offices of the treasurer and second auditor of Virginia.

Exactly what evidence they are looking for appears to be something of a mystery, but it is said that they will leave no stone unturned to ascertain what they are after. They expect to be at work on the books for fully a week and perhaps longer. They got to work on the books covering the year 1860 and from that point they will work forward down to more recent dates.

Mr. Dover arrived here Thursday with his assistants and is quartered at the Jefferson. He was accompanied to Richmond by Tax Commissioner Blue, of West Virginia, who returned home after introducing the State acountant to Governor Mann and other officials. The party brought with them a letter from Governor Hatfield asking that all reasonable courtesies be extended them.

Governor Mann after exchanging greetings withe them, directed Second Anditor Page and State Treasurer Harmon to throw open the records. At the same time, he directed W. Frank Smith, Virginia's chief accountant, to aid the probers in every way possible.

West Virginia has until June 1, 1914, to perfect a plan for the payment of the decree of the United States Supreme Court. This action was taken when Attorney General Williams, for Virginia, recently moved the court for a decree to enforce the payment of the amount of debt determined by Commissioner Littlefield to be due this State The court refused to adopt the motion, but ordered West Virginia to perfect a plan by the middle of April of next year for the initial payment or satisfactory basis of settlement with Virginia to become operative, as of June 1st. The principal and interest claimed by Virginia is upward of $20,000,000.

Two or three years ago, West Virginia experts went through practically the same books and carried away with them enough figures and other data to fill half a dozen trunks.

The prevailing opinion around the capitol is that the second detail of experts will have to use a fine comb with much precision and determination if they would find anything new in the books.

WANTS SANE CHRISTMAS.

Mayor Fisher Will Instruct Chief of Police to Stop Sale of Explosives.

In accordance with his policy since he became chief excutive of the city Mayor Thomas A. Fisher will endeavor to make the celebration of Christmas as sane as the last Fourth of July, and with this end in view all merchants will be forbidden to sell fireworks or explosives of any sort and those found using such devices will be handled as the law directs

This policy was insisted on by former Mayor Paff, but laws which have been more honored in their breach than in their observance are no teasy to be enforced immediately; hence he succeeded only in minimizing the practice to some extent. Mayor Fisher, following the same policy, has insisted that the laws be inforced, and on the last Fourth of July two merchants were made to pay fines in the police court for defying the law.

The mayor will have the law on [illegible] all violators.

REBELS DYNAMITE ANOTHER TRAIN

Twenty Women Dead After Explosion Near Santa Helena.

FATALITIES ARE 123.

Officer's Ears Cut Off, Tongue Taken Out and Eyes Gouged From Their Sockets.

Mexico City, Mexico, (via Galveston, Tex.,) Dec. 6.—Mannor Ricardo Cordero, commander of the federal military train which escaped destruction forty miles north of Santa Helena three days ago, arrived here today and described the blowing up with dynamite of a freight train and the other military convoy there, resulting in the death of 103 soldiers and twenty women camp followers.

General Cordero explained that the constitutionalists tapped the telegraph wire and obtained information that both military trains were following the freight and arranged to allow the freight train to pass and put detonating mines under the two following. On arriving at Santa Helena Lieut. Col. Falcon de la Pena, commanding the trains, ordered the military train under General Cordero to precede the freight. The constitutionalists, as arranged, allowed the first train to pass and blew up the freight and the second military train containing 200 troops, later pouring a rain of fire into the cars.

Col. de la Pena was captured by constitutionalists, who cut cut off his ears, tore out his tongue and gouged out his eyes. They then killed the women camp followers.

General Cordero finally succeeded in driving off the attacking band, capturing a man believed to have examines. He was forced to sit on a charge of dynamite, which was exploded, blowing him to fragments.

There is a report current here today that Morela has been captured by constitutionalists under Martin Espinosa. Morela is a valuable point commanding the approach to Guadalajara.

From authoritative sources it is learned that the federals have suffered a crushing defeat north of Zacatecas, between Fresnilo and Calera, being forced to fall back to Calera, where they were surrounded, and are calling for re-enforcements. The casualties are estimated at several hundred. This effectually checked the advance on the Zacatecas.

Meager details received here indicate that the federals were attacked by constitutionalists after being forced to retreat to Calera, where they were flanked by another constitutionalist detachment, and practically annihilated.

Rumors are current that Monterey has fallen. The reports are unconfirmed, although the indications are that the attack will be made soon if it is not already progressing.

PUT WIFE-BEATER TO LASH.

Neighbors Administer Dose of His Amusement to Cruel Husband.

Arcola, Ill., Dec. 6.—Henry Sich, upon whom the community has looked with extreme disfavor for a long time, felt the weight of public opinion and several buggy whips, wielded by muscular arms, Wednesday night.

Sich had given his wife a cruel beating, one of his customary forms of amusement, and five of the neighbors, following a general meeting, went to his home, dragged him out to a tree, tore off his clothing, and gave him a thorough dose of his own medicine.

After the whipping, his bonds were loosened and he was warned that it would be unhealthy for him to remain in this locality unless he readily reformed his mode of living.

BREAK IN STRIKE RANKS.

Indianapolis Teamsters Whose Employes Signed Contracts Will Return.

Indianapolis, Dec. 6.—There will be no general strike in Indianapolis at this time, and teamsters whose employers have signed union contracts returned to work this morning.

This course was decided upon late last day at a meeting of the Teamsters' Union, which was addressed by Daniel J. Tobin, international president of the teamsters' organization.

The wagon was traveling west in Washington street when a large crowd swooped around it, hurling bricks and other missiles. It was said several persons in the crowd flourished revolvers and when the strikebreakers began whipping their horses into a gallop a number of shots were fired from the crowd.

The strikers followed the wagon until it reached a fire station. The police reserves were called and after battering a few of the leaders with their clubs dispersed the crowd. Several arrests were made.

Two negroes on an ice wagon were peppered with shot, but not seriously hurt, when fired upon by men in an automobile. Although all available police were entered in the chase of the automobile, it had not been found last night. A number of arrests were made.

Many wagons were operated yesterday and business was about normal.

SUSPECT CAUGHT AT BRISTOL.

Many Checks and Dynamite Found in Bag.

Bristol, Va., Dec. 6.—John Crawford, 50 years old, and giving Cincinati as his home, was arrested here yesterday charged with attempting to pass forged checks. Crawford's carpet bag at a local hotel, contained a loaded revolver, a quantity of dynamite, fuse, caps, etc., and a large number of checks, a number of them being for large amounts and drawn on New York banks.

Several of the New York drafts were drawn by the People's National Bank, of Gate City, in favor of Baltimore banks. The cashier of the bank stated that they were mailed to Baltimore and had evidently been taken from the mail.

The police believe Crawford to be a yeggman. He was sentenced to six months pending further investigations of the police. Postoffice inspectors will attempt to solve the mystery of how Crawford got the checks into the mails.

MILITANTS STILL ON THE WAR PATH

Vengeance in Retaliation For Mrs. Pankhurst's Arrest.

PROPERTY IS BURNED.

Hunger and Thirst Striking Suffragist Very Feeble—Release Expected.

London, Dec. 6.—Militant suffragettes today carried out with a vengeance their threat of a campaign of destruction in retaliation for the arrest of their leader, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, on her return from America.

At least $75,000 worth of property was destroyed in various parts of England today, and with rumors of several smaller fires it is considered likely that the total losses of the day will be much higher. The women declare that they will burn and wreck buildings until their leader is released.

Reports from the jail at Exeter, where the hunger and thirst striking militant is confined, said that she is in collapse, and that her release on license is anticipated soon.

Mrs. Pankhurst has not tasted food or drink since she was arrested on board the Majestic two days ago and it is believed that she is even now too weak to be transferred to Holloway jail.

Manchester, England, Dec. 6.—Militant suffragettes today burned the Rusholme Exhibition Hall, causing loss of $60,000.

Liverpool, Dec. 6.—Suffragettes today set fire to the Scenic Railway Exhibition Grounds here. The amusement resort was badly damaged but not destroyed.

The militants also tried to burn the grandstand at the Aintree race track but were frustrated by a policeman. He discovered the combustibles concealed by the women before the lighted candle had been touched by them.

ANOTHER MAN GOES WRONG.

Attache of Young Men's Christian Association Charged With Embezzlement.

A trusted employe of the Young Men's Christian Association, Washington, probably will be placed under arrest within the next forty-eight hours on a warrant charging him with embezzling about $10,000 from the funds of the institution.

Until a force of auditors examining the young man's accounts make their report police action will be deferred. The exact amount alleged to have been taken is not known, but is believed it will be between $9,500 and $10,500. The name of the employe is withheld until criminal action is taken.

It is said attention first was attracted to the alleged shortage when the young man was seen riding about in an automobile. Puzzled to know how he could afford a machine on his small salary he was asked about it by the officials of the association, and told them that he dealt in real estate on the side and made considerable money that way.

It was said the young man had become fascinated with a young woman and maintained an apartment for her and spent considerable money on her. His wife, it is said, discovered this fact and reported his alleged shortage.

Forty-six lives were lost yesterday by the foundering of the Swedish steamer, Malmberget, off Bodo, Norway.

LINE DISCONTINUED.

A ferry line that has been in operation between Alexandria and Washington, for several years has been discontinued Capt. Douglass Ramsey, owner of the power boat Frank Phillips, which replaced the ferry steamer used at one time, recently withdrew his boat from service because of lack of patronage. Clerks in the navy yard, for whom ferry was operated, it seems, preferred the electric cars.

Richmond, Dec. 6.—When a little n of Detective Robert L. Bryant, siding at 2703 East Broad street, turned home from school Thursday ternoon he was frightened almost t of his wits when he went into the ning room and came upon a big ne- o burglar seated at the table enjoy- g all the refreshments that the preroom and cupboard afforded.

The lad screamed for help, sum- oning neighbors. Meanwhile the rglar beat a hasty retreat through e rear door and succeeded in ef- cting a safe getaway.

Investigation developed that the an had ransacked practically every om in the house, but he appears to ave landed but little plunder that uited his taste. The family was ab- nt at the time.

WOMAN TRIES TO DIE.

Mystery Surrounds Attempt Made in North Danville.

Danville, Va, Dec. 6.—A sensational attempt at suicide was made by an unknown woman Thursday morning, when she attempted to jump under an oncoming locomotive on the tracks of the Southern Railway.

The engine, under which the unknown so rashly attempted to have her life crushed out, is a yard engine known as the helper, that is used to push heavy trains out of the yard and start them on their way and to meet incoming trains and aid them in making the station. At 9 o'clock the engine was just returning from one of its customary trips, and was bound for the round-house, in charge of Conductor Ramsey, who was on the pilot. As the engine approached the River Street crossing on the Northside Mr. Ramsey noticed a well-dressed man and a woman standing close together near the tracks, seemingly engaged in earnest conversation. Even at some distance he noticed that the woman, who was dressed in brown, had a most striking appearance, and the man also bore the air of one well-to-do.

As the engine bore down on the couple and when it had gotten in the neighborhood of fifteen feet of them, he saw the woman plunge in front of the locomotive and the man make a lunge after her. Fearful of the horror that was about to transpire right in front of him, and which he was powerless to prevent, he closed his eyes to the gruesome sight that seemed inevitable. The man, though apparently panic-stricken, managed to grasp the woman and by a herculean effort threw her to one side just as the engine and its horror-stricken crew sped past. The woman seemed to struggle frantically with her rescuer to break away and end her existence, but he caught her to him and held her in safety until the immediate danger was past.

Nothing could be found out as to the identity of either the man or woman and neither would talk in regard to the matter. Both of them seemed greatly agitated and seemed most anxious to keep the entire affair shrouded in mystery.

The boy was accidentally shot by his older brother, the entire load hitting Robert, tearing his left arm to pieces. D. H. Pitts place the wounded boy in an automobile and brought him to the hospital. SOLDIER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Boyd Hupp Fires Three Bullets Through Body Near Strasburg.

Staunton, Va., Dec. 6.—Firing three shots through his body, Boyd Hupp, 23 years old, formerly an enlisted man in the United States army, killed himself among trees near his home, one-half mile north of Strasburg, Thursday afternoon.

No definite cause for the tragic act has been ascertained, although there were intimations that Hupp's self-destruction followed a quarrel with a young woman whom he had expected to marry. He was preparing to build a house for himself.

All three shots took effect in the breast near the heart, two bullets coming out at the back and the third lodging against the clothing.

Boyd had left his brother two hours before his body was found, the latter going into the woods in an opposite direction to get wood. He appeared to be in his usual spirits and there was no indication that he contemplated taking his life.

The scene of the tragedy is on the famous Hupp Hill near a breastwork thrown up by the Confederate army before the battle of Fisher's Hill.

Found Guilty of Murder.

Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 6.—Etta Brown, a negro woman, was found guilty in the circuit court of Spotsylvania county Wednesday afternoon on the charge of taking part in the murder of Rebecca Holmes, another negro woman, and sentenced to serve ten years in the penitentiary.

Clara Holmes, charged with having assisted in the crime, will be tried December 19th.

The murder is alleged to have been for revenge.

WANTS MEN IN THE CHURCHES.

The Northampton, Va., Times recently said:

One of our local ministers, addressing his congregation a few Sundays ago, suggested that some of the sisters dress in their husband's clothes in order that he might some time, when at a climax in his sermons, have an excuse for bawling "brethren!" all which brings forcefully to mind the question, why do so few men attend church? Why, to be specific, do so few men in Cape Charles attend divine service?

It cannot be because of distance, for no home is more than a few blocks from some house of worship; neither will the oft-exploited plea af fatigue fro mthe week's labors obtain, for these same absentees work ten hours a day and are the first in evidence at the moving-picture show when night comes.

What's the cause, and whose the fault? Has that old-time magnetism which used to attract alike the Christian and the non-Christian departed from the church? If so, why. To what cause are her chiefest energies devoted—fine physical or spiritual equipment? Have denominational rivalries and envy acquired a stronger hold on our religious organiaztions than zeal for the salvation of souls? We are asking—not answering—these questions. The churches themselves must answer, not to us but to God.

The fact that the church of the present day is not appealing to men has for some time been causing ministers and others interested no little anxiety. In all congregations there are generally about five women to one man, and, notwithstanding the many enterprises resorted to in order to interest the masculine gender in church work, the number of males who exhibit any zeal is gradually declining.

While earnest and well-meaning ministers are laboring to bring about a different order of things, men are gradually losing interest in churches, and the cause of such seems hard for the majority to see. There is a cancerous growth of some sort which should be diagnosed or the places of worship in this "enlightened gospel age" may ere long became as desolate as the Parthenon, Theseum or Temple at Olympia.

Does the church appeal to the burden-bearers of the world as in days of yore? It is plain that it does not. Those who bear the heat and burden of the day are not feeling at home under present conditions.

A movement is in progress in Baltimore intended to bring us back to the "old-time religion" A half page advertisement appears in a paper of the Monumental city today. The flaring headline contains these words —"Faith and Works Vs. Creed and Dogmas. The Gixving of One's Substance to . Things Hoped for Vs The Giving of One's Self to Ceremonial and Ritual."

A picture appears in the center of the advertisement which represents a workman, who has been laid off returning to his humble home. His wife is lying ill in bed, a half-starved infant is attempting to crawl upon the floor and a little daughter, scantily clothed with want depicted upon her face is coming meet her disconsolate father. The picture tells more than could be contained in a volume.

Under the picture is the following from a book seldom read and rarely studied (Apocalyse vii., 16-17: They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED STEADILY INCREASING.

New York city's army of unskilled labor is now larger than it has been for four years. This statement was made by Edward Carpenter, manager of the National Employment Exchange and other large employers of labor.

With daily announcement of laying off by large industrial and railroad corporations there is prospect of a further expansion in the number of idle workmen. At least one railroad is known to be contemplating the discharge of about 10,000 men. Others are expected to follow.

Mr. Carpenter said:

"There are more honest and able-bodied workingmen out of positions now than at any time since 1909, and the demand for labor is poorer than at any time since then.'

Conditions at the advent of winter are causing apprehension in many sections of the country. Distress here and there is being added to that occasioned by the scarcity of work.

The floods in Texas are appalling. At least fifty persons have perished, while the loss to property runs into the millions. As many people as there are in all Alexandria are said to be homeless, many of whom are marooned on islands suffering from cold and hunger

Heavy snow storms in Colorado are causing great inconvenience and suffering The supply of food and coal in some places is about exhausted.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Literary Society Meets Tonight—Class Meeting of First Year Friday.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Alexandria High School Literary Society will be held tonight in the Lee School building. Declamations will be given by Miss Flora Glasgow, Albert Bryan, and Miss Helen Blake. The question for debate is: "Resolved, that subjects should be elective in the last two years of the High School." The affirmative will be upheld by Otis Sunderlin.

The negative side will be upheld by Charles Sullivan and Tupper Barrett.

The society has been enlarged by the addition of some second year pupils and five Freshmen. The Freshmen will make their first appearance at the society tonight in "Freshmen Row."

The fund for the Sophomores' pictures is growing daily. They expect soon to have enough money to buy some very pretty pictures for their already attractive room.

A new pupil entered the first year Friday. At the same time the name of a pupil in the same class was dropped from the rolls.

The various boy's basketball teams began practice in the Armory during the week. Hereafter, they will practice in Schuler's Hall, thus giving the girls' teams the entire use of the Armory.

The first year held a class meeting Friday in Miss Hoffman's room. The meeting was for the purpose of organizing. The officers elected were: President, Elvin Brawner; vice-presidents, one from each of the three rooms, Weston Atkinson, Merrill Lynch, and Miss Louise Abbott; secretary, Lester Swann; and treasurer, Gus Pohl.

Members of the Children's Home board visited the school Friday to thank the pupils in person for their Thanksgiving donation to the Home.

The second year will have a history test next Tuesday. No lesson was assigned by Miss Ficklin for Monday, she giving the class the history period, in which to prepare for next days' test.

The reports for the second six weeks will be distributed Monday. Most of the marks are expected to be an improvement over those of the first six weeks.

The compositions on the A. H. S. Literary Society, for which the second year has been preparing, will be handed in Monday. The outlines have been re-written and revised for almost a week, and some good compositions should be forthcoming from the "scholars" efforts.

The girls in the second year, who had ordered class pins received a communication Thursday from Dieges & Clust. It stated that the space of the pin selected was too small to allow for the back ground and the letters to be in different colors, and that the class would either have to change colors or change the pin. The agent has been asked to come to the school, the class thinking that they could get better satisfaction from him in person.

One of the Freshmen classes had an oral composition day Thursday. They are now writing compositions to be read in class.

The Sophomores class basketball team has organized. A meeting of the team was held during the week, at which Robert Gulland was elected manager, and William Schaefer captain. They are practicing hard for the game with the Freshmen team next week. The first year team has three rooms, from which to select material, but that does not worry our boys any.

At a game of basket ball Thursday at the Armory, the A. H. S. girls' basket ball team lost to the Alexandria Blues by the score of 17 to 14. The game was well-played throughout, and both teams deserved credit.

The Sophomores are going over lessons very rapidly just now. They finished the nervous system when they came back to school after Thanksgiving, and are now studying the Special Senses in physiology. This is almost as hard a rock to strike as the nervous system was. In Caesar they have finished twenty-eight chapters, just completing the surrender of the Nervii. After taking a little sojourn with the Aduacui, they will have finished the second book. Then they will go back and start the first book, not having read that at first.

The Christmas holidays for the schools have been decided on by the school board. The High School pupils get thirteen days, having holiday from December 23rd to January 4th. Besides this, lots of pupils in the High School are trying to get a weeks' holiday during the intermediates. The pupil is exempt from taking the intermediate examination on each subject, in which he makes ninety per cent or more. Of course, few will be to lucky as to not having to take any "exam," but the pupil, who is not exempt from at least one, will be very hard to find.

Meet me at the Basketball Game Tonight ! !

STORM IN NORTHWEST.

Colorado Snow Bound-Distressing Conditions Reported.

Denver, Dec. 6.—The State of Colorado is isolated by snow ranging from thirty-six inches to eight feet in depth. Never in the history of the Rocky Mountains has anything been experienced to compare with the storm which has been raging since Monday. The snow last night in Denver is forty-four inches deep, and the storm continues without any promise of a let-up. In fact, the weather forecaster predicts an additional fall of eighteen inches.

Traffic of all kinds is suspended. Trains are stalled all over the State Street cars have been standing dea in the streets for thirty-six hours.

Conditions in other cities of the State—Colorado Springs, Trinidad Canon City, Criple Creek, Victori, Grand Junction—in fact every town in fact every town in Colorado, except a few small places on the west slope, are in even worse condition.

In Denver every downtown hotel is crowded; theater buildings and school houses are being utilized for refugees, who are unable to reach their homes.

Since Thursday night sixteen miners and a rescue party of eight men have been lost near Canon City. Whether they have perished in the eight feet of snow between the mines and their homes cannot be known until the great drift is broken.

Two stage coaches near Boulder and one near Buena Vista are lost, and it is feared the drivers and occupants have frozen to death.

In the Trinidad mining district, where martial law is in existence, the suffering was said to be intense, as both soldiers and strikers are living in tents, many of which were blown down during the storm.

Throughout the State buildings in practically every town have collapsed from the weight of the snow. The Foster Building, in Denver, was flooded early last night by the bursting of a water reservoir on the roof and hundreds of offices suffered great damage.

Locally all schools are closed indefinitely, every theater has canceled its engagement until the weather is more favorable, and on top of it all a coal famine is impending, all companies having announced that deliveries under present conditions are impossible.

But most serious is the coal situation. Owing to the strike in southern Colorado, the supply to Denver has been barely up to the demand, and now that the trains are unable to reach the city intense suffering is certain if the storm continues another twenty-four hours.

Dairy companies today issued a notice that milk and cream would be supplied only for babies. Similar action was taken by the milk companies in Colorado Springs, Canon City, Grand Junction, and virtually all other towns of importance.

A fund of $500,000, which the Knights of Columbus of this country have been collecting for more than two years for the Catholic University of Washington, has, it is said, been completed. The gift, it is understood, will be presented to the institution some time during the approaching Christmas holidays
